Instructors

Blake Smith
PGA Professional
blakesmith@pga.com

Blake has been an instructor at the John Jacobs Golf Schools and Golf Digest Golf Schools. He has been a Head Golf Professional and General Manager at multiple facilities, and was named the 2005 and 2007 Teacher of the Year in Alaska. His philosophy is to help each golfer to discover and understand their best golfing model, not mold a golfer to one style.

Matt Acuff
info@truenorthgolfschool.com

Matt has taught players of all levels and capabilities, working with Club Champions, aspiring tour professionals, golfers with disabilities, adults, seniors, and elite junior golfers. With over 30 years of teaching experience, Matt has made a strong impact in Junior Golf. One of his treasured accomplishments is every elite junior he has taught has earned a college scholarship, including teaching the first golfer with Down syndrome in history to earn a college scholarship. What makes Matt an excellent teacher is his uncanny ability to understand the golf swing of each student. No two swings are alike, and Matt has an instinct to see what people are doing right, and what to change.
